GRAND VIENNA TOUR

VIENNA, AUSTRIA

Inclusions: Expert-Guided Walking Tour

Duration: Approx. 3 Hours

Wander Through Vienna's Marvels, Unveiling Local Stories Along the Way

Get ready to rock Vienna's main attractions on an epic walking tour while learning fascinating stories straight from the heart of our local Viennese guide.

Our journey kicks off at the swanky State Opera House, a venue that's hosted some of the world's most breathtaking performances. Next, admire the grandeur of Albertina Museum and The New Market Square – the resting place for the Habsburgs, the power players of Austrian history.

Joseph Square offers a dose of local life, and the National Library showcases an impressive collection, making it a bookworm's paradise. The nearby Hofburg Palace, a former imperial residence, is steeped in regal tales.

Moving on, Michaelerplatz boasts architectural wonders, and Kohlmarkt and Graben streets are shopping and cafe havens with a side of history. Next, behold St. Stephen's Cathedral, Vienna's iconic symbol, with a history as impressive as its architecture.

On this adventure, you'll encounter the Ankeruhr clock, a mechanical marvel, and St. Ruprecht, Vienna's oldest church. The oldest synagogue and restaurant, featuring the beloved figure Augustin, round out our tour with a taste of Vienna's rich heritage.

Our stroll through the city is more than just sights – it's a symphony of history, art, and culture, amplified by our guide's incredible stories.
